There appears to be very little doubt that the French line of scenmers from Panama to Valparaiso, tasked of for some time, will soon come into operation. It is to run in connection with that already established between Aspinwall and San Nazaire, and to be carried on by steamers of 450 house pawer. A convention between the French Minister of France and the Company for Transatilantiqua to this effect has been entered into and bucome a peoject of law. This convention proposes that the Government should advance the company four millions of frances to facilitate the company four millions of frances to facilitate the company four millions, and further, guarantee from the lat of July, 1852, an interest of five percent on the capital of the company already invested in the present service as well as on that to be enaployed in carrying out the new line. The entire capital will be nearly sixty millions of finnes, and the Government appropriates for the familianent of the guarantee the sum of two millions. A FRENCH LINE ON THE PACIFIC COAST.

COURT AT HAWAIL-The Act of the last session of the Legislature left it to the determination of the Chief Justice whether the Autumn Term, required to be holden at Waimea, Hawaii, should, this year, be holden in September or November. It has been decided to hold it in September, and we are informed that His Honor, the Chief Justice, will preside. All persons interested will, accordingly, take notice, and give their attendance at Walmes on Tuesday, the first day of September. By the new law, the Terms for Hawali are to be holden, after this year, as follows: in May, at Hilo, and in November, at Waimes.

On Thursday of last week, His Majesty, attended by His Acting Minister of Foreign Affairs, and the Minister of the Interior, the Governor of Cahn, and His personal Staff, Col. Kalakana and Majors Allen and Pratt, visited the United States Steamship Molongo, Commander Edward Simpson. The party left Charlton's Wharf in two boats, about 11 o'clock, a. M., and were received by the Commander at the gangway, the Hawaiian the officers drawn up in line. General Mc-Cook, U. S. Minister-Resident, was present. in full uniform to welcome His Malesty. A royal salute was immediately fired, with erent precision. After the salute, His Mujesty was oscorted by the Commander over the whole vessel, and was much pleased by the indications of discipline and exact regu-The erew were then best to quarters, and exercised in handling the great guns. Next, they were practiced in the use of small arms, and repelling boarders. In this, the crew appeared to great advantage, and attracted much attention by their healthy and vigorous appearance. Several of the heavy guns were then fired, and two of the shells, which exploded at a considerable distance from the ressel, most have excited some natives in a canoe, who were near enough to see and hear pretty plainly, but not to be hurt. His Majesty was then invited to lunch, in the cabin, and was agreeably entertained by the Commander, while the battery was secured and the decks cleared up. Upon com ing on deck, the ship's boats, which had been all manned, were to be seen a little way off, and were engaged for some time in evolutions which were directed by signals from the ship. This practice was very interesting, and afforded much gratification to numerous parties on shore.

Shortly afterwards, His Majesty left the ship, and another salute was fired. The Royal party reached the wharf about 1 o'clock, and we believe the visit gave great pleasure and satisfaction to all concerned.

THE GERMAN.-This dance, so popular at tome, with its great variety of figures, and adaptation to the time and attendance, has been introduced to Honolulu society since the arrival of the Molongo. It has met with a cordial reception, and already has become domesticated through the zeal which has been displayed in practicing its many changes, and hereafter, not to know the German will be considered to be quite out of the fashious. Last week, at a private residence in Nuusnu Valley, the German culminated in a fancy dress party, where about thirty costumes made their appearance, and gave character and variety to the excitement of the dance. The costumes were tastefully and beautifully gotten up, and showed not a little skill in the wearers in adapting our scanty resources for such dresses, to the charectors chosen to be represented. Grecian, German, Italian, Spanish, and Tyrolean dresses appeared in the room, while other ladies assumed special characters. The Royal Kamamalu, whose personification was complete, and who seemed for a brief moment to have revisited our island kingdom, the Vivan diere, Diana, the Soubrette, Ione, Pocabon tas, and Water Nymphs. Among the gentle men appeared Brother Jonathan, Ingomar, Shakespeur, English Earls, Spanish Matadors, Brigands, Corssirs, and Zouaves. The scene, as these handsomely dressed personages mingled in the dances of the evening was picturesque and beautiful, and possibly the Ger man, though now so much in favor, unless in costume, hereafter will be voted as slow.

THE CONFEDERATE BONDHOLDERS IN ENG-LAND.—The present holders of the Confed-erate Lean cling to the desperate hope that they will yet receive their money back, not-withstanding the long delay and sore dis-couragements which they have encountered. The original subscribers, with certoin ex-ceptions, and those persons whose names are said to have been privately put down for stock, must long ago have given up all such pleasing dreams, and disposed of their in-terest outright. In the early period of the war, comfortable sums were made by judi-cious sale and trasfer. The bondholders of to-day are not supported by powerful "city to-day are not supported by powerful "city to-day are not supported by powerful "city articles," and their prospects are, conseacticles," and their prospects are, consequently, somewhat gloomy. W. Morgan, however, writes from London on their behalf to an American journal, with the view half to an American journal, with the view of establishing the theory that the demands of the holders are not prejudiced by the failure of the South to establish its independence. The bonds stipulate that payment shall be made "eix months after the ratification of the treaty of pence," but our New York cotemporary points out that this phrase is not exactly equivalent to the "termination of the war," and that, as a matter of fact, no treuty has yet been ratified, or ever will be ratified. On this ground, therefore, the claim for payment is not made out. There are some, we believe, who maintain that it is the daty of the United States Government to pay off the bonds. But that impression does not generally prevail at Washerument to pay off the bonds. But that impression does not generally prevail at Washington. There have been instances known of the conqueror compelling the conquered to pay the expenses of the war, but we can not recall any precedent for requiring the winning side to undertake the liabilities of the losing one. Confederate bondholders, except those who sold out quietly at first, were always sanguine mortals, but that after the Southern delit has been formally repudiated, they should still suppose it will ever be paid, shows a degree of confidence which many foreign Powers would be very glad to observe in their Engisia creditors. In this instance, the confidence is not appreciated, and it is, therefore, not likely to meet with the expected reward.—Pull Mall Ganette.

Is the darkess days of the Atlantic Telegraph enterprise, a friend of Cyrns W. Field boughs ten thousand dollars' worth of stock for a ten dollar bill. The investor came to Cyrns W. Field to ask him whether his purchitic was worth anything. Mr. Field offered to take the stock at a considerable advance. "Well, what do you advise me to do Mr. Field I" "Take your stock home," was the reply; "lock it up, and never look at it near think of it till you come to me for your dividends on it." That man is now receiving, on his investment of ten dollars, eight hundred dollars per annum in gold.

THE Established Church of Scotland The Established Church of Scotland is generally, by its Synods, remarks the Rock, petitioning against the discetablishment of the Irish Church. The petition from the provincial Synod of Galloway states:—
"That in the judgment of your petitioners, it is the sacred duty of the rulers of a Christian State, in their official repaidly, to combenance and upboid the Christian religion: and that it is incumbent, to assist and maintain the Protestant doctrine and worship as set forth in the standards of the Established Churches of England and Scotland. That therefore, the withdrawal of national That therefore, the withdrawal of national countenance from the Irish Branch of the United Church would be at once a grievous departure from the duty which this Christian State owes to the Christian Church, and a gross violation of the constitution of this kingdom, which has secured to the national Churches their rights and privileges by the most solemn guarantee that can be given—the Sovereign's Oath."

EUNAWAY.-On Monday, an accident hap pened to the carriage of Mr. Wond, through back, who ran into the vehicle and frightened the carriage burse. Mr. Issue Hart, and wife and child, who were in the carriage, wisely refrained from any attempt to Jump out, and thus escaped injusy. The horse cleared himself from the carriage near Williams' Cabinet Shop, and the only damage sustained was the breaking of the shefts and the harcess. Many of our carriage accidents happen through borsemen who, from their inability manage a borse, spiject their neighbors to danger whenever they go out into the streets. Such riders have a perverse way of colliding with carriages on the slightest provocation-if not straight on, by bucking into theur, as happened in this instance. They ought to pay for the damage, now and then, If only to spur them into a better knowledge

The New Load Brougham,—By a fresh creation in 1800 the barony of Brougham and Vaux was to descend, in default of male issue, to William Brougham, Esq. the youngest and now only surviving brother of the late Lord Brougham, who has accordingly succeeded to the title. The present Lord Brougham was born on the 30th September, 1736, and is therefore in his seventy-first year. He was educated at Jesus College, Cambridge, where he graduated R. A. in Cambridge, where he graduated B. A. in 1819, and M. A. in 1852; he was called to the
